Thousands upon thousands of our brave wounded in shoulder, George W. Bowlin wounded in men have fell to rise no more, and tens of wrist, Samuel Boreland wounded, William thousands more are languishing with ghastly wounds. We are having a carnival of blood in leg. George Downard wounded, Daniel K. and the land is wet with the tears of mourning. Harrison county has, with the rest, made her sacrifice. The 126th O. V. I., in which there are three companies from Harrison county, occupied a position in Sedgwick's corps, which bore the brunt of battle on last Thursday and Friday week. The accounts we have say the regiment suffered turibiy, but, as yet, we are unable to get information of but few of the casualties. The formation of but few of the casualties. The send missing, William J. Young wounded news received has thrown the people of the in le whole county in the deepest gloom, makes every heart throb in sympathy, and eyes

On the organization of the company, he was elected Orderly Sergeant, from which position he was promoted as his su-perior qualities were discovered. He was a young man of unblemished character, and in every position in which he served proved himself prompt, efficient and competent.-He was aged about twenty-seven. He was the army. He was promoted for good cona modul soldier and a complete gentleman, and no man in the regiment had more or warmer friends. He was quiet and unassuming, always giving evidence by a correct deportment of the integrity of his life .-His death has east a gloom over all, and especial his numerous friends and acquaintances, who knew him but to love him .-He fell in the discharge of duty-a brave spirit has passed from earth:

"Soldier, rest! thy warfare o'er, Sleep the sleep that knows not breaking, Dream of battle-fields no more, Days of danger, nights of waking." Efforts are being made to recover the remains of the slain, but with what success we are not informed. Capt. McCready was wounded in the arm.

Our information is that a number of the Harrison county boys are killed and wounded. One account states that the regiment went into battle over 500 strong, and came out with less than 100. Whether they were engaged in they more recent fights we are not informed. We would esteem it as a flavort if persons receiving letters from friends in the regiment containing any additional particulars, would give us the information gained that we may give additional particulars next week. Friends will look with anxious interest for further news.

General Sedgwick.

General John Sedgwick, commander of the Sixth Corps of the Army of the Potomae, who lost his life in the skirmish at Spettsylvania Court House on Monday, was a native of Litchfield county, Connecticut, and graduated at West Point in 1837: since when he has been constantly connected with duct in the Mexican war; was appointed Brigadier General of Volunteers August 31, 1861, and commissioned Major General July 4, 1862. He was severely wounded at Antic-tam, and at the battle of Chancellorsville, he captured the heights of Fredericksburg, but was afterwards compelled to retreat across the river with heavy loss. Charges made against him for failure to carry out the orders of his superior at that time, were triumphantly refuted, and on the late reorganization Prime antly refuted, and on the late reorganization of the Army of the Potomac, he was assigned to the command of the Sixth Corps.—General Sedgwick was a man of fine personal Inferior appearance, of more than average ability, and of an amiable character. He was soldier by taste as well as by profession; and has during the war shown himself equal to the responsibilities of the several important positions to which he has been called.—Cin. April 16th, 1864. April 16th, 1864.
On motion, Orderly Sergeant E. Z. Davis, was elected Chairman, and Sergt. A. I. Russell, Secretary. The Chairman then appointed Capt. T, K. Parkinson, Lieut. H. P. Caldwell, and Lieut. L. A. Harvey, as a committee to draft resolutions, expressing the feelings of the Company, in reference to the event, and report without delay.
Whereupon, the following Preamble and Resolutions were produced, read and unani-Nessitutions were produced, read and unanimously adopted by the Company:

WHERKAS, It hath pleased the Almighty in his Divine Wisdom, to call from amongst us our esteemed friend, Samuel W. Morton, of Company H. 12th O. V. C. Therefore.

Resolved 1st, That we the members of said Company unanimously unite in condolence, with the friends and relatives of the deceased, at home, and assure them that bitterly as they may regret his untimely loss, they have the undivided sympathy of his late comrades in arms.

2d. That in his death, Company H. has lost one of her best members, and we all deeply deplore the occasion; but bow submissively to the decree of the Omnipotent, who doeth all things well."

3rd. That his upright walk and conversa-tion, his general disposition, his abstinence from vice and immorality, his accommadating manners, and his strict integrity of character, won for him the respect and confidence of all with whom he was associated.

4th. That we hope, nan, we believe, that the change to him is a happy one, and that "our loss is his eternal gain." Those qualities which endeared him to his companions on earth, have secured to him a final resting
